

Association of Dealership Compliance Officers Seminar & Certification

What to Expect

The Association of Dealership Compliance Officers is hosting a compliance officer seminar October 7-9, 2019 in the Washington, D.C. area. Attendees will learn about required federal compliance regulations and risk management expectations across all business units within the dealership. The conference will provide compliance officers with education, guidance and tools to execute a Compliance Management System.

ADCO Seminar Information Can be Found on the ADCO Website: www.adcocommunity.com

The Dealership Compliance Officer Professional Certification examination will be offered at the closing session of the seminar and is optional.

THE ADCO SEMINAR FEE INCLUDES

- Participation in 3 days of education, facilitated by industry compliance experts. Seminar content includes:
 - o The elements that comprise an effective dealership's compliance management program.
 - o A guide to the federal regulations that govern not only automotive retail, finance, maintenance and repair, but also dealership business administration, advertisement, marketing, customer communication and employee training, and safety and health - as defined by OSHA.
- Dealership Compliance Officer Certification syllabus and study material.
- Hotel room for 3 nights - beginning Sunday, October 6, 2019.
- Breakfast, lunch and dinner is provided Monday and Tuesday. Breakfast and lunch will be provided on Wednesday.
- Membership in the Association of Dealership Compliance Officers for 12 months.

ADCO MEMBERSHIP PROVIDES THE COMPLIANCE OFFICER THE FOLLOWING

- ✓ Communication and networking opportunities in a private forum with other industry compliance officers.
- ✓ Receive updated information on compliance news and legislative changes.
- ✓ Receive a free year subscription to Spot Delivery and access to Hudson Cook, LLP's compliance library.
- ✓ Access to compliance tools and templates.
- ✓ Receive discounts on ADCO products and events.

*The ADCO seminar attendee is responsible for the registration fee and travel expenses.
We look forward to meeting you at the Dealership Compliance Officer Seminar in October!*

adcocommunity.com | 682.325.4381 #350

Proudly serving these industries: franchised new vehicle • independent used car
• buy here/pay here • powersports • motorcycle • rv • marine